

JORISATION

with the Prince Claus Conservatoire

February 18th | 20.15 hrs. | De Regentenkamer |
Cort Heyligersstraat 4 | The Hague | FREE ENTRANCE

Joris Teepe (bass) | Steve Altenberg (drums) | Marc van Roon (piano)
Marjorie Barns (vocals)
Horn players: students of the Prince Claus Conservatoire

On February 18th the Prince Claus Conservatoire organises a jazz showcase to promote our unique jazz department which focusses on the New York jazz scene. Renowned jazz musicians who also teach in our department perform in a concert together with our jazz students. Head of our jazz department and bass player Joris Teepe is the initiator of this event and of the study programme New York comes to Groningen.

About New York comes to Groningen

The Prince Claus Conservatoire offers jazz education based on the expertise of the New York jazz scene as only conservatoire in Europe. Jazz teachers from the Big Apple come over to Groningen every week to offer the best jazz education.

More information on our study programme:
hanze.nl/newyorkgroningen